

2612 W Bewick
Fort Worth, Texas 76109
(402) 301 1073
n.c.meyers@tcu.edu

NICK MEYERS

Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, TX

Class of 2011

Current GPA: 3.01

Major: Supply Chain

Minors: Accounting, Economics

EDUCATION

XTO Energy, Inc. (recently purchased by Exxon Mobil)

Fort Worth, TX, January 2008 - Present

- Severance Tax Accounting Intern: 25-30 hrs per week
- $300,000,000 tax savings – Texas High Cost Well tax rate discounts: Analyze, prepare, and categorize costs for Texas gas wells and prepare form AP-180 for tax rate reduction to be sent to the Comptroller's office.
- $3,000,000 + tax savings – Oklahoma Horizontal Well tax refunds: Using Excel, created tax refund form for inputting data, retrieved data from Monthly Gross Production Tax Reports and Access database, compiled data and sent to Oklahoma Tax Commission
- $2,000,000 + tax savings – Utah Stripper Well Credits: Wells under Stripper Well status receive credits on all products it produces. Each product receives a tax credit determined by finding the percentage of the well's main product to how much was produced overall.

Holland, Johns, Schwartz and Penny L. L. P

Fort Worth, TX, September 2007 – December 2007

- Administrative Assistant/Runner: 17 hrs per week
- Law Firm located in downtown Ft. Worth. I was a runner and did whatever was asked to me: drop off documents to clients, stock the kitchen, run to the courthouse, separate and deliver the mail, answer phones, make coffee or go to Starbuck's.

EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE

LEADERSHIP POSITIONS

RLC Committee Chairman: Fall 2009 - Present

- A Residential Learning Community is living/learning center for chapters of Sigma Phi Epsilon across the country.
- As the chairman, I lead meetings in which the committee collectively determines what actions should be taken to get our Chapter to the point it can apply for RLC accreditation.
- We are currently working to raise the Chapter's minimum GPA, and network with professors to find a potential Faculty Fellow, who is to provide mentoring, and guidance to our members, as well as supervising leadership development, a point of emphasis in Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Emerging Leaders Facilitator: Spring 2008

- I facilitated a class that discusses different aspects of leadership (conflict, confrontation, virtue, etc.).
- Met once a week for an hour and a half.
- Students got the chance to interact and share their opinions with one and other.

YMCA Flag Football Coach: Fall 2007

- Held practice for an hour every Tuesday
- Coached a game every Saturday
- Attempted to teach 2nd graders something about the game of football

AWARDS AND ACHIEVEMENTS

➤ Spring 2010

- Supply Chain Student Executive Program (Alcon Laboratories): Chosen as one of three students to represent TCU's Neeley School and the Supply and Value Chain Program in this exciting endeavor. I will be starting a Supply Chain internship with Alcon Laboratories Fall 2010.
- NEDA Project Host Program Student Ambassador: 1 of 2 Neeley School Supply Chain major representatives at the Electronic Distribution Show. Will accompany industry executives for face-to-face meetings with their supply chain partners.

➤ Fall 2007

- Recognition as a top Intro student from TCU Economics Department