

Gabrielle Studebaker

3115 Norfolk St. Apt. 21207
Houston, TX 77098

(281) 610-5201
glstudeb@yahoo.com

SUMMARY

Completing a degree in Business Management and an entrepreneurship certificate. Interned as a database administrator for a general aviation software development company. Seeking a permanent position in the supply chain industry.

EDUCATION

University of Houston- Downtown, Houston, Texas
Bachelor of Business Administration in Management
Minor – Supply Chain Management
Certificate in Entrepreneurship
Expected Graduation: December 2007

EXPERIENCE

Coursework Projects at University of Houston- Downtown: August 2006- May 2007
Houston, TX

- Quantitative Case Analysis wherein linear programming was used to find optimal solutions for a hybrid mix (product mix and blending of raw materials)
- Project Management- Conducting project analysis using MS Project and Visio 2003
- Materials Management- Conducting warehousing research under advisement of Prof. Gary Stading.

Database Administrator March 2004- August 2004
PerfectStop, Inc. Houston, TX

- Trained network users to use ACT! and Entered data concerning fixed based operators, contacts, and company meetings
- Analyzed database for marketing/sales department
- Researched marketing projects
- Beta tested ACT!
- Developed an understanding of the general aviation industry
- Prepared documentations for future users

SKILLS

- Microsoft Excel, Access, Word, PowerPoint, Outlook, Publisher
- ACT! 6.0
- Courses relevant: Quantitative Analysis, Project Mgt, Business Strategy, Materials Mgt., Purchasing Mgt.

AFFILIATIONS

Student Supply Chain Management Association- ISM, NAPM student member
Internal VP January 2007- Present

